

GIRL TO STALK ALASKA'S BIG GAME ACTRESS," SAYS YOUNG STAR

Pauline Painter, Big Game Huntress.

Alameda, Cal., June 17.—Pauline Painter will hunt big game in Alaska for three months this summer.

Tiring of the continual round of so-called social activities Miss Painter, with rifle and knapsack, will stalk the caribou and mountain sheep in his native Klondike.

This Diana-of-today will be one of a party of four. Her aunt, Mrs. Webster Norcross of Seattle, will be the only other woman member of the expedition.

The men of the party are to be

A. Dalton Harrison, Miss Painter's uncle, and Henry Landsberger of San Francisco.
